

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 19th November 2020 / Lot 1537

LOT 1537

A mixed group of decorative ceramics, 20th century, including Beswick boar 'Champion Wall Champion Boy 53rd', No. 1453A, a Crown Devon Fielding's John Peel hunting jug and three West German pottery wares.

Estimate: £30 - £50

Condition Report

Please note only part of the lot reported on, as follows;

Two handled vase and cover - height 26cm. Knop of cover visibly glued with approx 2cm long by 1cm wide chip to inner rim edge and associated minor hairline running from this crack to one of the pierced holes. Main body of vase in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. It doesn't look terribly old and has no factory marks.

Created: Thu, 19th November 2020 09:09