A European silver ring, mounted with a faceted dark garnet, each shoulder decorated with a figure in the Renaissance style, weight 7g, with a case.

Condition Report

Garnet probably not original stone to ring as it doesn't sit comfortably in its setting. Facets to garnet generally worn and there are surface reaching inclusions, particularly to the side of the garnet. Figural shoulders are not particularly well cast, ring is probably Austro-Hungarian reflecting a Renaissance style. Case not original.
