

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th December 2020 / Lot 1009

LOT 1009

A Chinese famille verte porcelain rouleau vase, Kangxi style but late 19th century, painted with opposing figural panels against a green stippled ground filled with flowers, height 29cm (hairlines to body).

Estimate: £60 - £100

---

Condition Report

Each side has a vertical body crack running through the figural panel, one approx 17cm long, the other approx 12cm long. Otherwise the vase is in generally good order with no restoration or chips. Typical light surface wear and scratches to enamels.

Created: Sat, 28th November 2020 18:06