

Objects of Virtu / Monday, 14th December 2020 / Lot 2501

LOT 2501

Samuel Shelley - a 19th century watercolour on ivory oval miniature portrait of a young man, 6.3cm x 5.1cm, within a period giltwood and gesso frame, signed and inscribed verso (restoration).

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

2501. The actual portrait is possibly a little faded and the panel is very slightly bowed, but otherwise appears to be generally good order. Uninspected out of frame. The inscription is on paper and is applied to the back, but again is uninspected out of frame. Please note the loss of crestings to the frame.

Created: Tue, 1st December 2020 15:36