

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th December 2020 / Lot 1241

LOT 1241

A Chinese red lacquered vellum trunk, late Qing dynasty, the front and sides gilt with figures and flowers, fitted with brass handles, lock and lock plate, width 74.5cm (faults), with a red painted wooden stand.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

There is wear to the red decoration on the top and the sides of the trunk. There is a small puncture hole to the centre of the hinged lid. One side panel has wear and significant loss, the other side and back in better condition but still with wear. The wood stand has a chipped section to corner rim, approx 14cm in length. Please see the extra images on our website using the zoom function to see these condition issues.

Created: Thu, 3rd December 2020 10:14