LOT 505

A gold, turquoise and rose cut diamond set cluster bar brooch, star set with a rose cut diamond on a pavé set turquoise ground within a ropetwist surround, weight 5.1g, width 4.6cm, and a Victorian seed pearl set oval pendant locket with horseshoe motif (one half-pearl lacking).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

Brooch - centre of brooch has probably been an earring in the past, later mounted to the pin fitting, central rose diamond looks to be a fairly clear white stone, turquoises are probably set into silver, slight variation of colour, one or two have old chips.

Locket - interior good condition, one pearl missing from horseshoe front motif, otherwise a few surface dents and scratches particularly visible at the back, and some staining/discolouration to the metal.
