

Silver and Plate / Wed, 13th January 2021 / Lot 331

LOT 331

An Elizabeth II silver novelty pin cushion in the form of a pig, London 1986 by Ari D. Norman, length 4.5cm, another silver pin cushion in the form of an elephant, London 1992, height 2.5cm, a silver model of a hippopotamus, London 1985, length 3.2cm, and six further models of animals, including a piglet, a badger, an elephant and a mouse seated on an apple.

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

Each piece in good condition overall with no damage or repairs.

Hallmark on pig readable, cushion velvet discoloured.

Hallmark on elephant readable, minor surface blemish to back right buttock, only noticeable on close inspection.

Created: Mon, 4th January 2021 11:28