

Jewellery / Wed, 13th January 2021 / Lot 653

LOT 653

A gold, diamond and ruby pendant, designed as a horseshoe, mounted with three circular cut diamonds and four circular cut rubies, unmarked, weight 1g, length 2cm.

Estimate: £60 - £90

Condition Report

653. The three diamonds are rose cut diamonds, the four rubies are circular cut rubies. Overall good condition. Construction of horseshoe is hollow. Horseshoe possibly taken from the finial of an Edwardian stickpin prior to mounting as a pendant or charm. Length includes the suspension rings. The metal is gold. Stones are each very approximately 1mm in diameter.

Created: Thu, 7th January 2021 10:49