LOT 620

A silver gilt and diamond ring, probably Indian, mounted with a principal foil backed flat cut oval diamond, flanked by a pair of twin ball shoulders, detailed '925', ring size approx M1/2, weight 3.2g, head of ring 1.2cm x 0.9cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

620. The ring is in generally good condition, but it is not of particularly fine manufacture. The black band around the stone is just an enamel type colouring. No marks. The ring has no significant damage or repair, typical light surface scratches.
