

Clocks and Barometers / Thu, 21st January 2021 / Lot 1124

LOT 1124

A William IV rosewood bracket clock, the brass eight day twin fusee movement striking hours on a bell with pull repeat and alarm mechanisms, the backplate detailed 'Frodsham Gracechurch Street London', the painted circular dial with strike/silent indicator, black Roman hour numerals and inscribed 'Frodsham Gracechurch St London', the rectangular case with applied fan and foliate mouldings, the sides with embossed foliate and loose ring handles above pierced brass fret panels, on a plinth base and bun feet, height 36cm, with pendulum. Note: John Frodsham is recorded in 'Watchmakers and Clockmakers of the World' by Brian Loomes as working in Gracechurch Street, London, between 1822 and 1849.

Estimate: £500 - £800

Condition Report

1124. The clock is in generally good restored condition. No significant damage or repairs to case. There are a few minor splits to veneer on the case edge at 3 and 4 o'clock. The dial has some crazing and light discolouration in places, but overall in generally good order. The chain fusee movement winds smoothly and is currently running but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch. The strike and repeat strike and alarm strike are all in working order.

Created: Thu, 14th January 2021 16:22