LOT 355

A Queen Anne Britannia standard silver sugar bowl and domed cover with convolvulus finial, the ogee baluster body on a circular foot, all later chased with flowers and 'C' scrolls, London 1706, maker's mark rubbed, weight 312.4g, height 14cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

355. Generally good condition. Cover has a few dents just above the rim and a small split to the rim. Bowl rim is slightly misshapen, but the cover fits tightly. The body of the bowl has a few small dents, the most noticeable being in the middle of the crest cartouche. Cover appears to be unmarked.
