LOT 1641

Two Hornsea Muramic wall plaques, circa 1960/70s, designed by John Clappison, depicting Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden, framed, 45cm x 45cm, and a chariot with horses, framed, 45cm x 20cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1641. Adam & Eve - generally good condition with some minor faults. There is a faint hairline across the tail section of the serpent. Few very minor scuffs to left edge of tree and some minor scratches. There is a couple of small chips to the edge of Adam's hair. It would benefit from a clean.

Chariot with horses - in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Few minor surface scuffs and would benefit from a clean.
