

Glassware / Thursday, 29th July 2021 / Lot 1744

LOT 1744

A mixed group of glassware, 20th century, including a mottled orange and aventurine vase with Monart label to base, height 17.5cm, two cluck-cluck decanters, three paperweights and a selection of inkwell liners.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

174. The orange vase is in good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs. Few very minor scratches. It bears a Monart label, but we are not convinced it is a genuine Monart piece (hence the catalogue description). It seems a bit light weight wise, but the mottling and aventurine work is quite nice.

Mdina paperweight has a few scuffs to surface, otherwise ok.

Other two paperweights in good condition.

Penguin - good condition.

Blue glass decanter and stopper - good condition.

Clear glass decanter and stopper - good condition.

All remaining smaller pieces of glass in generally good condition.
