LOT 2621

An early 19th century box, finely inlaid in various woods with floral sprays, panels of seaweed, scrollwork veneers and sections of woodchip, all within crossbanded borders, height 11cm, width 30.3cm, depth 16cm (some faults).

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

2621. There is a patch of re-veneering to the central panel of the lid and another small patch to the right of the larger patch. Otherwise there are just a few small areas of loss to the veneer scattered throughout the surface of the sides, including some small areas of the scrollwork on front. There are three pieces of veneer lining missing to the interior edge.
