

Jewellery / Wed, 6th October 2021 / Lot 585

LOT 585

A platinum, gold, ruby and diamond pendant necklace, the principal cushion cut diamond above a tied ribbon bow motif, set with rose cut diamonds and calibre cut rubies, supporting two graduated diamond and ruby cluster drops, on a multiple link neckchain, detailed 'PT950', on a boltring clasp, detailed '950', weight 8.4g, length 42cm, with a case.

Estimate: £1,600 - £1,900

Condition Report

585. Suggested age 1910-1930. Marked 18K to the side of one of the drops, overall good condition, some wear to the links connecting the drops to the top. Neckchain is a modern replaced platinum chain. The principal diamond is approx 0.30ct.

Created: Thu, 30th September 2021 11:07