LOT 1505

A pair of Doultton Lambeth stoneware vases, circa 1874, decorated by Florence Barlow, monogrammed, each incised with a continuous scene of dogs in a landscape, impressed marks to base, height 27.5cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1505 - One vase has two faint hairline cracks to the rim but is otherwise in good condition. The other vase has some professional restoration to the foot rim approx. 2cm in length. It also has a small manufacturing glaze fault to the body to one incised border, fairly insignificant.
