LOT 1862

A pair of Second World War German 10 x 80 flak binoculars, probably by Joseph Schneider & Co, detailed 'D.F. 10 x 80 dKI... KF... 18216'.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1862. Overall light spotting surface rust, bubbling, spotting and forming, more prolific on lens guards. General wear to peripheral edges. Evidence of fungus and dust within the prisms and lenses. Action appears to work smoothly.

Provenance: bought back by the current vendor's father after D Day. They were told the binoculars were found laying in a grass field.
