

Glassware / Thursday, 10th March 2022 / Lot 1790

LOT 1790

Twelve late Victorian coloured glass night light holders, each with cross hatched moulded body, height 9cm, together with a small group of cranberry glass, including eleven various wines.

Estimate: £30 - £50

Condition Report

1790. Night lights - all have a degree of nibbling / chipping to the rim. One green light has a crack to the rim. One blue light has a large chip to the exterior of the rim. One blue light has a crack to the rim. One blue light has a re-glued portion of rim, approx 1/4 of the rim.

Cranberry glass - Two wines has small chips to the bowl rim. Wine with engraved bird - two small chips to footrim. Other pieces in generally good condition.

Created: Mon, 7th March 2022 15:13