LOT 1595

A Clarice Cliff Bizarre Autumn Crocus pattern part tea service, comprising two cake plates, six sandwich plates, milk jug, sugar bowl, four teacups and six saucers and pin dish, black printed marks to bases (minor faults).

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

Cups - one badly cracked, remaining 3 in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration, no crazing, one has a tiny few glaze flakes to the rim.

Saucers - 5 in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration, only slight typical wear to the wells.

The last also in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration but of quite a yellowish hue overall in comparison to the others.

Jug - 2 chips to top rim edge exterior, one approx 1cm square, the other approx 0.5cm square, otherwise light surface scratches to enamels.

Bowl - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Small dish - significant wear to inner surface decoration, otherwise ok.

Cake plates - both in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Each displays some typical scratches to the brown wells, one has some misfiring to the purple enamels.

Tea plates - one with small chip to rim underside, otherwise each in good condition with some minor crazing and typical scratches to the brown ground.
