

Art Pottery / Thursday, 17th March 2022 / Lot 2458

LOT 2458

A large Minton Secessionist pottery jardinière, circa 1903, probably designed by Leon Solon, of U-shape, decorated with three peacocks against a shaded green and cream ground, impressed and green printed marks to base with numerals '3408', height 36cm (some restoration), together with a matched Minton jardinière stand, decorated with blue Art Nouveau flowers on sinuous stems against a floral ground, impressed marks to base, height 59.5cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

2548. Jardinière - restoration to rim and a hairline crack 10cm long, 4cm wide chip to footrim, crazed all over with small chips to body.

Stand - extensive loss to painted decoration, repainted in large areas and chips in places.

Created: Tue, 15th March 2022 16:02