LOT 1321   7th April 2022

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thursday, 7th April 2022 / Lot 1321

LOT 1321

A group of Chinese blue and white porcelain, late 19th century and later, comprising a cylinder vase, mark of Kangxi but late 19th century, painted with birds, butterflies and flowers, height 26.5cm (chips to rim and footrim), a baluster vase and cover, mark of Kangxi but late 19th century, painted with dragons amidst peony, height 27.5cm (repaired neck and minor chips), three prunus decorated baluster vases and covers, heights 31.5cm, 32.5cm and 22.5cm, and four prunus decorated ginger jars and two covers (mostly with faults).

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

Cylinder vase - numerous chips to rim and larger chip to footrim approx 4cm long, otherwise in generally good condition.

Baluster vase and cover with dragons - there is a U-shaped section of rim broken out in two pieces and re-glued approx 2cm high by 4cm wide, small vertical hairline alongside, and minor rim chips, the edge of the base has glaze fritting/minor chips to the circumference, the body of the vase generally in good order. The cover has three chips to the rim.

Paler prunus baluster vase - hairline crack to rim approx 6.5cm long, otherwise ok. Cover with chip to rim and chips to inner rim.

Darker prunus baluster vase - V-shaped broken out and re-glued section to rim approx 2cm high by 3cm long, small chips at tops of the breaks, tiny nick to footrim otherwise body in good condition. Cover with repair to rim and repair to inner rim.

Smaller prunus vase and cover - repaired section of rim with two cracks running down into the body of the vase approx 14cm in length and 10cm in length. Cover with numerous chips to rim and inner rim.

Larger ginger jar one - in good condition but cover broken into 3 pieces and with some losses to the rim.

Larger ginger jar two - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Two smaller ginger jars - both in good condition, no covers.

Created: Mon, 4th April 2022 13:01