

LOT 2551

A group of mostly 19th century bone and ivory brisé and folding fans, including an ivory fan, carved with lily-of-the-valley, length 21cm, a bone and paper folding fan, painted with a girl playing a hurdy gurdy, and a sandalwood fan with printed figural scenes.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2551. The ivory lily-of-the-valley fan has a vertical crack to one stick and has a detached broken ribbon. Otherwise in reasonable order.

Created: Sat, 7th May 2022 10:07