

British and Continental Ceramics / Wednesday, 1st June 2022 / Lot 1544

LOT 1544

A porcelain oil lamp base in the form of an elephant, late 19th century, by Alfred Stellmacher, raised on a naturalistic base, printed and impressed marks to base, height 27.5cm.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

Minute nick to flat edge of the right tusk, otherwise in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

There is typical rubbing to the gilding.

None of the oil lamp mechanism or fixings come with the lot, other than the gilt metal collar attached to the top of the back of the elephant.

Created: Thu, 26th May 2022 12:41