

British and Continental Ceramics / Wednesday, 1st June 2022 / Lot 1592

LOT 1592

Five Royal Worcester candle snuffers, comprising two The Cook, circa 1905 and 1920, height 6.5cm, Granny Snow, circa 1912, height 7.8cm, Witch, Mandarin and Nun, together with a Grainger & Co pierced two-handled bowl and cover (some faults).

Estimate: £40 - £60

---

Condition Report

Both Cook's and Granny Snow in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Witch - small chip to underside front brim of hat, approx 1cm long narrow chip to back edge of base, noticeable scratch to orange cloak at back of figure.

Mandarin - head and hat broken into a number of pieces and visibly glued with some tiny losses along the break lines.

Nun - small chip to back edge of base and 3 small nicks to front edge of base.

Bowl and cover - hairline crack to cover, gilding a little rubbed overall.

Created: Mon, 30th May 2022 15:19