Glassware / Wednesday, 1st June 2022 / Lot 1745

LOT 1745

A large group of glass decanters and some stoppers, 19th and 20th century, all clear, including a pair of Prussian shape with faceted triple ringed necks, height 24cm, a conical pair with single collar to the neck and blown stoppers, height 31cm, and two with simple foliate engraved decoration.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

The decanters are generally in good condition overall with no significant issues. Most do not have stoppers and those stoppers that are present are generally matched.
