

Glassware / Thursday, 11th August 2022 / Lot 1713

LOT 1713

A Bohemian white overlay green glass lustre, 19th century, the bowl top with alternate leaf and trellis sections beneath a scalloped rim, raised on a foliate decorated foot, highlighted in gilt overall, hung with prismatic drops, height 29cm, together with a frosted glass gilt decorated lustre, hung with drops, height 33cm, and a small group of spare assorted prismatic drops.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

Green lustre - 2 minor chips to top edge of crenellated rim, gilding worn in all the usual places and totally worn away on surface of foot.

Frosted lustre - 4 tiny nicks to top edge of crenellated rim, otherwise in good condition.

Typical nicks and chips to drops overall.

Created: Wed, 10th August 2022 16:11