LOT 1495

A KPM Berlin porcelain figure, 19th century, modelled as Cupid supporting a basket of flowers for an elegant maiden seated on a tree stump, raised on a circular base with gilded detail, red printed 'KPM' and orb mark to base with underglaze blue sceptre and impressed marks, including numerals '4924', height 33cm (minor faults).

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

The figure group is fundamentally in good condition overall with no cracks or restoration.

The basket is missing one handle and there are typical small losses/chips to the relief flowers and foliage - nothing too terrible.

No wear to gilding.
