

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 10th November 2022 / Lot 1273

LOT 1273

A Japanese Fukagawa porcelain double gourd vase, Meiji period, painted with a dragon against a ground of gilt overlapping waves on a midnight blue ground, underglaze blue painted factory mark to base, height 21cm, together with a similar Fukagawa bottle vase, decorated with a dragon above waves, height 18cm, and a Japanese blue and white square shaped bowl, diameter 13.5cm.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1273. Both vases in good condition with no chips, cracks or repairs. Typical light wear to gilt, but nothing of any real significance.

Blue and white bowl in good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Created: Mon, 7th November 2022 11:10