

Entertainment / Thu, 1st December 2022 / Lot 2353

LOT 2353

A Norman Wisdom 'Gump Suit' made by W. Snape & Son, Wolverhampton in June, 1956, together with original cap, shirt and tie. Note: Norman Wisdom wore his 'Gump Suit' in his first five films for the Rank Organisation. This suit would have been worn during the making of 'Up in the World' (1956) and 'Just my Luck' (1957). It would also have been used during his many performances in the theatre from the 1950s through to the 1980s.

Estimate: £3,000 - £5,000

Condition Report

2353. Hat - minor age related wear.

Shirt - has an open back, otherwise in good condition.

Jacket - numerous small repaired holes. Interior label for 'Snape & Son', Princes Square, Wolverhampton, Norman Wisdom Esq 1956' (see extensive selection of photos on website).

Trousers - open hole on left knee, repairs to both knees. Trade label to waistband.

Tie - very worn and holed.

Created: Tue, 29th November 2022 11:10