

Glassware / Thu, 12th January 2023 / Lot 1716

LOT 1716

A small group of glass, mostly 19th century, including two lachrymatory (tear) Oxford lavender scent phials with gilt and enamelled decoration, lengths 19cm and 10.3cm (longest missing stopper, other with broken and stuck stopper), a large rummer on a stepped square foot, height 19cm, two engraved wines and a plated cruet stand with two silver mounted bottles (faults).

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

1716. Lacking stopper to small Oxford lavender phial, otherwise small chips and areas of wear consistent with age and use.

Created: Wed, 11th January 2023 13:13