Condition Report

Indian/Burmese brooch - there are no stones missing from this brooch.

The central tiered section appears to be attached to the main part of the brooch by a pin, which allows each individual tier to move slightly.

Some variation of colour to the rubies, a few of the rubies do have surface reaching inclusions, a few are rubbed.

Amethyst brooch - one or two of the tiniest nicks to facet edges of the amethyst, a small scratch to the table.

The pearls are a little subdued in lustre.

The pin possibly replaced, the hinge is a little loose.

Costume brooch - in generally good condition.
