

Silver and Plate / Wednesday, 14th June 2023 / Lot 347

LOT 347

A late George II silver cream jug of low-bellied form with scroll handle, raised on scroll legs, embossed with a rural scene of a cottage, swan and dog, height 9.5cm, a silver buttershell on ball feet, Sheffield 1895, and a silver preserve spoon, total weight 199.6g, together with three silver mounted dressing table items and three plated items, including a vase with festoon decoration, height 23.2cm.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

347. Jug dented and damaged. Vase has bent rim. Mirror has minor dent and areas of wear. Age related wear and minor dents throughout.

Created: Wed, 7th June 2023 15:04