

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 9th November 2023 / Lot 1060

LOT 1060

A Chinese famille rose export porcelain part tea service, late Qianlong period, painted with scattered flowers within trellis borders, comprising teapot and cover, coffee pot and cover, saucer dish, shaped dish, six teabowls, three coffee cups and eleven saucers, height of teapot 14cm (faults).

Estimate: £200 - £400

---

Condition Report

1060. Teapot and cover - good condition, typical surface scratches and wear, minor nicks to spouts.

Coffee pot and cover - badly crazed, and chipped tip of spout.

Oval dish - badly crazed, otherwise ok.

Saucer dish - 3 hairlines to rim.

3 cups - one crazed and with chips to rim, two with hairlines to rim and one with cracked handle.

2 saucers - good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

2 saucers - badly repaired.

1 saucer - broken in half and reglued.

4 saucers - hairlines to rims.

2 saucers - hairlines and chips to rims.

Created: Tue, 7th November 2023 15:24