LOT 1908

A small group of Stourbridge intaglio cut, polished and engraved glass, late 19th and early 20th century, comprising a vase of waisted form with flower baskets to the rim, height 15.5cm, a circular bowl with flowers and birds, diameter 20.5cm, three decanters with matched stoppers, height of tallest 33cm, and a pair of conical wines on twisted stems, height 17.5cm. Provenance: from the collection of John and Poppy Stallebrass.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

Generally each piece is in good condition overall.

Each of the decanter stoppers is matched - the largest faceted ball stopper has chipping to its end.

The square decanter has some minor nicks to the base corner and side edges - nothing terrible and only noticeable on close inspection, similarly the decanter with the foot has some minor abrasions amidst the decoration.
