LOT 1809

A matched craquelure ice glass part dessert service, Bohemian or French, circa 1850, each piece entwined with a gilt decorated red snake, comprising a pair of centrepieces with removable trumpets, total height 44cm, a comports (lacking trumpet section), two stands, heights 18.5cm and 17cm, and a circular bowl with cover and stand (minor faults).

Provenance: from the collection of John and Poppy Stallebrass.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

Overall the items in the lot are in generally good condition. There is typical wear/rubbing to the gilding to varying degrees, commensurate with age and use.

One of the centrepieces with the removable trumpet has a minor loss to the tail tip of the snake entwined around the stem.

The comports lacking the trumpet section also has a minor loss to the tip of the snake's tail.

The circular stand for the small covered bowl has a small chip to the rim edge.
