Condition Report

1070. The watch is in generally good clean condition. There are typical minor scratches to case and bracelet, but only really noticeable under magnification. The dial is in good order. The tilt is just the online photograph not being quite straight. The bracelet is good and the clasp is in good working order. The watch is not currently running, may require a new battery or service, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch.
