

Prints, Maps and Posters / Wed, 24th January 2024 / Lot 35

LOT 35

Nat Long [Nathaniel John Long] – 'The Surfriders', mid-20th century etching with aquatint, signed, titled, and inscribed 'trial proof' in pencil, sheet size 41cm x 46.5cm, together with twenty-eight further etchings by the same hand. Note: Nat Long (1893-1955) studied at the Bournemouth School of Art and later worked as a graphic designer for Garrett & Atkinson and Birn Brothers amongst others. He served in the First World War with 1/4th Hants in India and Mesopotamia.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

35 - 'Surfriders' - Some age toning and light foxing throughout. Light creasing and minor nicks around edges. Unframed.

The rest are in fairly good condition overall, but there is occasional foxing or age toning. All unframed.

Created: Sat, 20th January 2024 09:39