

Militaria, Medals and Awards / Tue, 26th November 2024 / Lot 4867

LOT 4867

A rare late Victorian Hertfordshire Regiment officer's plumed helmet, the brass-mounted silver-plated skull body with applied pressed metal badge, horse-hair plume, part leather fitted interior and pressed metal ring-mounted leather chinstrap, height 40cm.

Estimate: £400 - £600

Condition Report

4867. Overall cleaned. Evidence of dressed out bruising in places. Badge and applied decoration good overall, chin strap detached with breakdown in leather, chin strap mounts with green verdigris, interior leather also part lacking with breakdown. Spike shows evidence of impact damage at some point. Plume may be later associated.

Created: Fri, 22nd November 2024 12:35