

Silver and Plate / Wed, 27th November 2024 / Lot 305

LOT 305

A George III silver circular salver, the centre engraved with a monogrammed scroll cartouche and inscription, within a stylized scallop shell and gadrooned rim, on claw and ball feet, London 1767 by Richard Rugg I, weight 817.6g, diameter 31.5cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

305. A little thin to centre where engraved monogram is. Otherwise typical surface scratches and wear. Few small dents to surface. Solder repairs to all 3 feet at joint. Marks slightly rubbed but still readable.

Created: Mon, 25th November 2024 18:17