

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2024 / Lot 1717

LOT 1717

A Moorcroft Pottery Wisteria pattern vase, 1920s, with blue ground, impressed marks to base with shape number, green painted initials, height 13cm (fault to foot), together with an Hibiscus pattern blue ground vase, height 13cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

Wisteria vase ♦ there is a curve shaped haircrack or unsprung chip to the exterior base edge of the foot approximately 1.5cm long ♦ please view the images on our website using the zoom function. The vase is typically crazed overall with some minor manufacturing blemishes/scratches to the glaze overall. Otherwise no restoration.

Hibiscus vase - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. There is some minor and light typical crazing to the glaze.

Created: Mon, 2nd December 2024 12:49