

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 5th December 2024 / Lot 1436

LOT 1436

A harlequin Paris porcelain part service, mid 19th century, painted with flowers and gilt with foliage in a mix of patterns around a gilt 'AB' monogram, comprising six teacups and saucers, jug, height 17cm, and a sucrier and cover, height 14cm, together with a Meissen style French porcelain plate painted with an amorous couple within a pierced gilt enriched rim, underglaze blue mark to base, diameter 23cm, and an outside factory decorated Meissen plate painted with a bird within a pierced rim, crossed swords mark in underglaze blue to base, diameter 21cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

---

Condition Report

The sucrier box has glued repairs to the main body and the cups have some wear to the gilding particularly on the rim interiors.

Otherwise items in the lot are in good condition overall.

There is no maker's mark on the Paris part service to take an image of, only some various incised but indistinct numerals.

Created: Tue, 3rd December 2024 12:41