

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 13th February 2025 / Lot 1410

LOT 1410

An Art Deco pottery figure by Sibylle May for Arthur Goldscheider's art movement 'La Stele et L'Évolution', 1920s, modelled as a craquelure glazed female nude seated on a mottled green and blue glazed plinth draped with gilt enriched folds of fabric, incised signature and impressed factory mark, height 33cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no restoration.

There are some very minor nibbled nicks to the base edge of the footrim which are likely to have been since manufacture - it is just quite roughly finished here.

Created: Wed, 5th February 2025 14:55