LOT 1813

Two Richardson Vitrified Enamel Etruscan style glass vases, mid 19th century, the opaque white bodies decorated in shades of pale brown and ochre with Classical figures and motifs, black printed mark to bases, height 26cm, together with two similar Richardson spill vases, one decorated with Classical figures, the other with a portrait of Sir Walter Raleigh and the House in which Shakspeare [sic] was Born, both 10cm high, a similar jug decorated with a titled scene of Classical figures, height 24cm, a George Bacchus Vitrified Enamels vase with Classical figure decoration, height 25cm, and a small group of other gilt and enamel decorated opaque glassware (some faults). Provenance: from the collection of John and Poppy Stallebrass.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

Pair Richardson with Classical figures - one has some flaking/misfiring to the enamels. Otherwise both ok.
Pear shaped vase with polychrome Classical figures - reduced neck with painted 'restoration' to remaining top rim edge.

The remaining items in the lot are in good condition overall with no damage but some typical wear commensurate with age and handling.
