

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 13th February 2025 / Lot 1485

LOT 1485

A Limoges porcelain gilt metal mounted Sèvres style circular jar and cover, early 20th century, the cover painted with Cupid and a muse opposing a landscape view within gilt framing against a green ground, flanked by gilt metal scroll handles above a pierced gilt metal rim, green printed mark to base, diameter including handles 17cm, together with a Gouda pottery vase, height 11cm, and a miniature Moorcroft pottery Hibiscus pattern vase, height 4.5cm.

Estimate: £40 - £60

---

Condition Report

Limoges - the porcelain is in good condition, the mounts are quite tarnished in sporadic areas and the mounts to the centre of the cover are misshapen, gilding heavily worn overall.

Moorcroft - small restored chip to edge of foot.

Gouda - overall crazing to glaze, otherwise ok.

Created: Mon, 10th February 2025 11:14