

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 13th February 2025 / Lot 1548

LOT 1548

A Meissen model of a bullfinch, 20th century, perched on a white glazed stump base, crossed swords in underglaze blue to base with incised numerals '735', height 9.5cm, together with a collection of ten other bird models, including three white glazed Berlin examples, two white glazed Kaiser examples, Goebel and Volkstedt (minor faults).

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Meissen bullfinch - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Kaiser group two birds on branch - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Kaiser bird outstretched wings - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Berlin kingfisher - tip of one piece of grass is detached but available with the lot, otherwise in good condition.

Berlin bird with open beak - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Royal Porzellan KPM kingfisher on circular base - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Berlin bird on branch - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Dresden bisque bird with head crest - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Goebel polychrome blue tit - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Small polychrome Volkstedt owl - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Small polychrome Volkstedt bird of prey - in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Tue, 11th February 2025 10:48