LOT 1132

A late 19th/early 20th French brass cased mantel timepiece, the eight day movement with platform escapement, the circular enameled dial with black Arabic hour numerals, the case modelled as a barrel and two bacchanalian putti, on a plinth base and toupie feet, height 19cm.

Estimate: £50 - £100

Condition Report

1132. Please note, the case is made of bronze, not brass as originally described.

Case in generally good condition, but is a bit dirty and dusty with typical scratches and surface wear. The dial has a faint hairline a 12 o'clock.

The movement winds and starts to tick, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch.
