

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wednesday, 5th March 2025 / Lot 3561

LOT 3561

An 18th century cannon-barrel flintlock pistol by Mortimer, London, with turn-off brass barrel, barrel length 7cm, brass lock and flash pan with engraved decorative motifs, steel hammer and trigger guard and walnut grip with silver wire inlaid decoration.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

3561. Action good on half and full cock. Barrel unscrews. Gun has seen restoration and cleaning over its life though now toning back. One or two small areas of wire lifting to grip and would need attention.

Created: Fri, 28th February 2025 16:11