

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wednesday, 5th March 2025 / Lot 3552

LOT 3552

An 18th century Continental flintlock pistol with decorated part-shaped and part-round barrel, barrel length 30cm, and finely engraved lock and hammer, full-stocked with carved and white metal-applied decoration (overall later repairs, damages, losses).

Estimate: £60 - £80

Condition Report

3552. Action works though very heavy and stiff. Some losses to white metal decoration. Old repairs as often seen with guns of this type. Heavily used and repaired/altered in its life, later strappings on barrel.

Created: Fri, 28th February 2025 16:13