

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wednesday, 5th March 2025 / Lot 3556

LOT 3556

A late 18th/early 19th century double-barrelled flintlock pistol with side-by-side damascened round barrels, barrel length 25cm, full-stocked with brass furniture, chip-carved grip and pull-out wooden ramrod (overall damage, restoration and losses, grip possibly later altered).

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

3556. Overall a heavily restored and altered gun. Heavy cleaning. Alteration to locks and mechanism defective. Action loose. Heavy cleaning to barrels with evidence of old rust. Later ramrod.

Created: Fri, 28th February 2025 16:14