

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Wednesday, 5th March 2025 / Lot 3536

LOT 3536

A fine and rare 18th century Royal Highland Regiment all-steel flintlock pistol by Isaac Bissell, circa 1760, with turned round barrel, barrel length 20cm, engraved 'R H R', line border-engraved lock and hammer, the lock engraved 'Bissell', left-side belthook fitting, ball-shaped trigger, ram's horn-shaped butt with turned ball finial, the grip with engraved flowerhead motifs, and turned all-steel pull-out ramrod.

Estimate: £1,200 - £1,500

Condition Report

3536. Overall very clean. Probably polished at intervals in its life. Areas of ill fitting components, may be from overall heavy cleaning. Action smooth on half and full cock. Some screw heads with damage from ill fitting driver.

Created: Fri, 28th February 2025 16:16